America, the Beautiful

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for pilgrim feet,
Whose stern impassioned stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat
Across the wilderness!
America! America! God mend thine ev'ry flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control,
Thy liberty in law!

O beautiful for heroes proved
In liberating strife,
Who more than self their country loved,
And mercy more than life!
America! America! May God thy gold refine,
Till all success be nobleness,
And ev'ry gain divine!

O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam,
Undimmed by human tears!
America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

SYNOD 2023

As I reflect on Synod 2023, having watched the majority of it online, what strikes me is how much talking past each other seems to be taking place. Outside of a few rare occasions there is a lot of language, a lot of passion, a lot of emotions; but as to informing in regard to the decisions to be made it is Much Ado About Nothing.

I want to make sure I am not saying such speeches have no purpose. Multiple speakers described the significance of being heard and they certainly are not wrong. If we, as a denomination, desire to live together in covenant one of the most significant parts of maintaining covenant is listening to each other. After all, near the beginning of Exodus we read:

"The Israelites groaned in their slavery and cried out, and their cry for help because of their slavery went up to God. God heard their groaning and he remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac and with Jacob. So God looked on the Israelites and was concerned about them." (Exodus 2:23-25)

It was God actively listening unto the cries of His people which led to His mighty intervention and redemption of His people. It was their cries of pain and misery which caused Him to remember His covenant. Later, after the Red Sea, the Israelites almost immediately begin to complain about food and drink wishing they had never been saved. God responds by providing Manna, Quail, and Rocks. Later still, as Moses is up on the mountain confirming the covenant with the Ten Commandments, God sees and hears Israel's worship of the golden calf as they attribute their salvation to a false idol. These actions cause God to "burn with anger" against the Israelites until Moses intercedes for them.

Through the whole of Exodus God is actively listening unto His people with whom He keeps covenant. That listening leads to Israel's salvation, and later it will lead to their punishment. God's listening will lead to Israel's care, and it will also lead to mercy. In the case of the golden calf, it leads to anger that stems from a blatant betrayal. But thanks to the covenant, it never leads to silence or ignoring. The book of Exodus ends triumphantly with the glory of God filling the tabernacle so that God might dwell with His people.

We, in the CRCNA, as a denomination have covenanted to dwell together in a sense. A critical aspect in maintaining that life together is listening to one another. I write this as someone who desperately desires to have debate end, and more than just one. I tire of the same points, arguments, and motions being brought up over and over again. As I reflect on this page, I wonder if I have become so tired by debate that I have allowed myself to tire of listening. That though this might be the same point, it is a new person who deserves to be heard within the community. Perhaps not all on the floor of Synod, but it should be somewhere in our church. Perhaps the fact that so many feel desperate to speak at Synod comes from the reality that they don't feel heard anywhere else.

Such thoughts cause me to question how much I listen regarding the life of the CRCNA besides Synod. How many articles written by people involved in our denomination ministries do I read? How many editorial points raised do I reflect upon? How many times have I opened up the prayer guides provided by our denomination and prayed together with the church? Do I live and listen to the CRCNA beside Synod?

I clearly know the reasons why I do not wish too. Though as I reflect on the Exodus, I am convicted of its necessity to live in covenant together. Even though listening leads frequently to God's frustration and anger with His people, it was also the path by which God not only saved His people but dwelt with them.

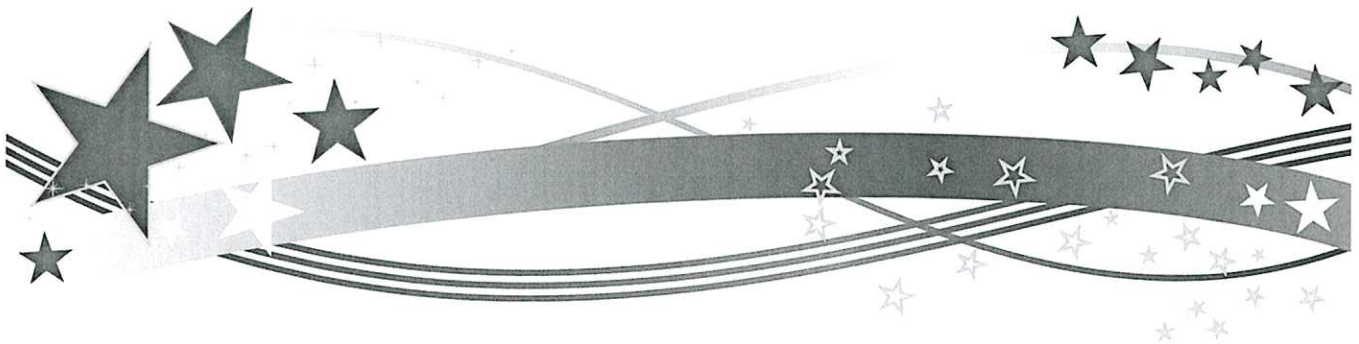

I feel convinced if salvation and living together is the goal of our denominational decisions, then listening is the road we must walk together. It may be a slow walk filled with pains, frustrations and anger; and I pray that it won't be for us 40 years of waking in the wilderness only to end exactly where we started as Israel experienced. But even if it is so, after all those years of wandering together we have loved and listened; if we have kept faith and covenant together it certainly will not be Much Ado About Nothing.

CAMPUS LIFE HIGH SCHOOL

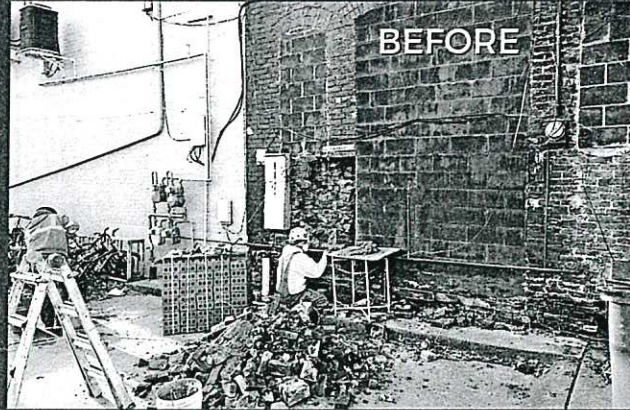

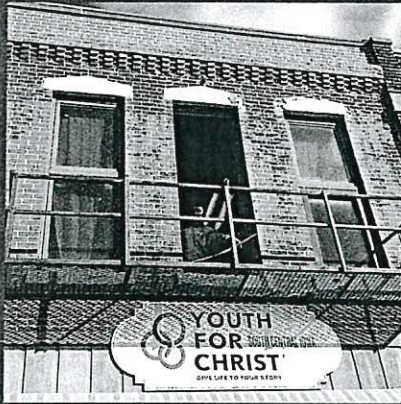

The 2022-23 school year has wrapped up for Campus Life HS! It was another year of growing deeper in community with one another and learning God's truth for navigating life's issues. I have a small group where several girls and I meet weekly to go more in depth by doing a Bible study or discussing relevant topics and sometimes we go out for ice cream... :) We usually begin our time by sharing our "High, Low, Random" for the week. It's a good way to hear from each person on how their week went. To close out this school year, I'd like to share a "High, Low, Random" I have from the year. My "Random" is that I shared about YFC to one of the classes at William Penn and two students from that class ended up volunteering for us this spring semester. It was so great! My "Low" is having to deal with issues regarding the building-BUT, that all turned out great too! There are too many "highs" to pick from, but I'll sum it up by sharing this Bible verse, "The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; His mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness." Lamentations 3:22-23. All praise to God for each day He gives us and for another great year with Campus Life!

Greetings JCA Partners,

Thank you so much for your prayers, volunteer work and financial support. The lives of our students have been greatly blessed and enriched by your involvement with Joshua Christian Academy.

This is my second year teaching third grade at JCA. God blessed me with a lively, energetic and spirit-filled group of kids. They love dancing and singing together during chapel, and participating in our bible class which has focused on heroes of the bible. The rest of our classroom learning was driven by the Abeka curriculum, which was fun to spice up with some in-class games, treasure chest prizes and brain break videos!

As a class, we also enjoyed time out of the classroom. First, we visited Valley Church in West Des Moines. During the visit, the students demonstrated all the wonderful scripture and songs from chapel as directed by Chris Hurley. Next, we visited the Des Moines Performing Arts Center to see a duo of performers who incorporated percussion and dance. This group was mesmerizing and the kids came back inspired. Lastly, they visited the Central Iowa Free Skinners Rendezvous at Ashton Wildwood Park. The goal of the Rendezvous Club is to provide a glimpse of life in pre-1840 America and re-enact the annual meeting of fur trappers, Native Americans, and pioneers. Their art teacher, Mrs. Chris Barry, participates each year with the group and helped them make sachets that they brought with them for the day. Without your prayers and monetary donations, the students would have missed this hands-on learning in our community. Thank you!

I will close this letter with Ephesians 2:10. For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God has prepared in advance for us to do. This helps me affirm that God has been preparing me my whole life to be a teacher. In His timing, and for His glory, I feel blessed to be teaching at JCA!

The Best is Yet to Come!

Mrs. Kartiainen, aka Mrs. K.

WHAT'S NEW?

An update on the work at Geneva

Dear Friends of Geneva,

My name is Brett Erickson, and I am grateful to introduce myself as the new Director of Geneva. I began serving in the fall of 2022. My background is in ministry, non profit management, and cross cultural and international education. I had the honor of completing graduate research under the mentorship of Ed Laarman, and he, along with Jason Chen, are my biggest influences in shaping the work at Geneva. I hope this letter finds you well, and I hope you are encouraged by the work we have done this year, and the work we have planned for the future. We would love to see you at upcoming events! Stay up to date with our new website: geneva-ui.org

Yours in Christ,
Brett Erickson

Serving the needy children of Baja since 1964

SUMMER
2023

Rancho de los Ninos

Rancho de los Ninos, also known as Casa de Paz, is a very large complex. It is capable of housing large numbers of needy children and adolescents. Located in the Guadalupe Valley, it is another one of the many organizations supported by MCCA through the generous donations of its supporters like you. Thank You!!

Did you know, there is a great alternative to a Snail Mail Newsletter?

By signing up to receive a digital newsletter, you help us keep our costs down. It also makes it easy for you to forward a copy to family and friends if you so desire. With your smartphone scan the QR code, on the right, to easily sign up for email delivery of the quarterly Newsletter. Or, go directly to: www.bit.ly/MCCA_mailing_signup.

A Recent visit to Mission Bautista

Shown above is Mission Bautista, a beloved stop on the Guadalupe Valley run. Roland and his wife Aieda have been preaching the Gospel and ministering to the children and families of their small church for many years. Several years ago Roland went home to be with the Lord. Aieda remains, nevertheless, and with the help of her Grandson has continued the ministry. She is simply an amazing woman and servant of the Lord. The MCCA members shown here are dividing the food we brought into individual smaller portions that will become care packages for the children and their parents who live around the area of the church.

Donations, which may be tax deductible can be made by visiting our website at <http://mccaredlands.org/>

Founded in 1964 in Redlands, CA., Mexican Christian Children's Aid is a, 501(c)(3), Charitable Organization. It began when a group of Christian business people were moved to address the sharp contrast between the affluence in the U.S., and the abject poverty found just across our southern border in Mexico. We purchase and provide monthly bulk food deliveries and other assistance to local Christian organizations in the northern Baja region. We deliver the food donations primarily to organizations that sponsor Children's Homes and or operate periodic Feeding Programs to needy families. Along with the food, Spanish translation Bibles, Gospel Tracts, and other items are generally a part of our deliveries. Our monthly runs consist of all volunteer drivers and riders who donate their vehicles full of fuel and literally everything needed to complete the mission each time we go. The MCCA does not own or rent a building, nor are there any paid staff.

The result is that 100% of all monetary donations goes directly to purchase food products.

Snapshots of Life in Mexico

Back at home — Newsletter Folding Parties can be fun.

Recently, a few MCCA members gathered at the River Church in Redlands, CA. Our mission was to fold and stuff into envelopes the Spring 2023 Newsletter that went out in March. Some coffee and donuts during the time together made for good fellowship as well. In the lower left is our current President, Paul Vela. Going around the table is clockwise is Harold Milligan, Seth Wallace, Kenny and Olga Hernandez, Seth's kids Kyla & Caleb, and Richard De Witt. We do this to save a little money off the cost to get the Newsletter out. At the same we draw close as members of the ministry. What a blessing this is indeed!

A Few Words from our Treasurer

MCCA thanks you for your faithful support over the months, years, and for many of you over the decades! I would like to share some information with you about the current financial situation at MCCA. We believe that God has blessed and led the organization through the many years since it was started in 1964, and we pray He will continue to lead. MCCA is completely made up of volunteers - no one is paid and many contribute financially as well. The money used to purchase food is almost exclusively donated by private individuals such as yourselves. 100% of your contributions goes for the purchase of food for the needy children in Mexico. In addition to food, MCCA delivers Bibles to each of the facilities we are privileged to serve. These Bibles have been graciously donated as well. All of the drivers of the approximately 16 trucks going to Mexico each month pay for their own fuel and special Mexico Automobile Insurance. With inflation, the price of groceries in Mexico has increased dramatically. We are having to make some cuts in the amount of food we can afford to purchase, which is heartbreaking considering the needs of the children. We welcome your prayers, support and suggestions. We also invite anyone that is interested to ride along with us on one of our monthly Saturday trips into Mexico.

Thank You and God Bless You for Your Continued Generous Support,

Tom Rasmussen

MCCA Treasurer

ZELLE AND ZEFFY ARE NOW AVAILABLE METHODS TO DONATE TO MCCA

MCCA has recently partnered with Zelle and Zeffy to maximize your charitable donations to our organization. They provide alternative options to mailing a check or using PayPal which charges a fee. Both Zelle and Zeffy are 100% free fundraising platforms. In a nutshell, there are no transaction fees, payment processing fees, or platform fees. Every penny of your donation will go to the purchase of food by MCCA.

The Zelle and or Zeffy platforms may ask you if you would like to make a contribution to offset their cost, but that would be independent of your donation to MCCA.

To donate using Zeffy or Zelle visit our Web Site at:

<https://mccaredlands.org/donate.html>

Mission Statement

MCCA is a ministry obedient to God's call to care for children in need by supplying those in Baja California with food, Spanish translation Bibles and the opportunity to know the love of Jesus Christ.
